

Blessed is He Who Loves God Precepts Worksheet

© 2003 Beverly Schmitt, all rights reserved

Verse 1

Blest is he who loves God's precepts,
Who from sin restrains his feet,
He who will not stand with sinners,
He who shuns the scorners' seat.

Verse 2

Blest is he who makes the statutes
Of the Lord his chief delight,
In God's law, divinely perfect,
Meditating day and night.

Verse 3

He is like a tree well planted
By the flowing river's side,
Ever green of leaf and fruitful:
Thus shall all his works abide.

Verse 4

Like the driven chaff the wicked
Shall be swept from off the land
With the just they shall not gather,
Nor shall in the judgment stand.

Verse 5

Well the Lord will guard the righteous,
For their way to Him is known;
But the way of evildoers
Shall by Him be overthrown.

Vocabulary In one or two words define the following terms from the poem.

Verse 1: Blest, precepts, restraints, shuns, scorners

Verse 2: statutes, divinely, Meditating

Verse 3: abide

Verse 4: chaff

Verse 5: evildoers

Word Pictures Word pictures is another way of saying imagery. Imagery or figurative language helps us form a picture of what the author is trying to present. Discuss what these word pictures mean and, perhaps, without drawing a picture of Christ, draw your idea of the imagery or figurative language the author uses!

Verse 1: from sin restrains his feet, will not stand with sinners, shuns scorners' seat

Verse 2: Meditating day and night

Verse 3: tree well planted, flowing river's side, green of leaf

Verse 4: the wicked shall be swept from off the land

Verse 5: guard the righteous

Mechanics Verbally discuss

Who is the speaker? (Does the speaker have a specific personality or has the author remained in the background so the message of the poem will be more clear?)

What does the poem reveal about the speaker's character? (Sometimes, poems reveal nothing about the speaker's personal thoughts, feelings, or attitudes. Yet, the poem may demonstrate those character traits that are important to the author like courage, loyalty, perseverance, etc.)

Is the speaker addressing someone in particular or is it to anyone? (Sometimes poems are not directed to anyone in particular, but to anyone that may read it.)

Does the poem have a setting? (Does the author tell where the poem occurs? Is the poem about a specific event?)

Is the poem about a particular event? (Is the event past or present? If it is about a past event, does the remembrance of the event have a particular meaning to the speaker?)

Is the theme of the poem stated directly or indirectly? (Some poems are straightforward and are meant to be taken literally. In songs, the theme may be presented in the refrain or in the last few lines. Sometimes the theme is a little bit more difficult to discern as it is made with figurative language or symbols.)

How did you respond to the poem when you read it the first time?

What point of view or perspective is the speaker? (What meaning do you think the poem has for the author?)

How did you respond to the poem when you read it the first time? (Did your thoughts and feelings change after you took time to study it?)

Comprehension Questions Verbally discuss

Verse 1: Who is blest? What is a precept? What should you keep yourself from (line 2)? Who should we not stand with (line 3)? What should be shunned? Why?

Verse 2: What is a statute? Why should we follow the Lord's statutes? What is a chief delight (line 2)? What is divinely perfect (line 3)? What should be meditated on? When?

Verse 3: Explain and discuss this verse.

Verse 4: How is the wicked compared to the driven chaff? Explain and discuss: "With the just they shall not gather, Nor shall in the judgment stand."

Verse 5: Who will be guarded? Who does the guarding? What is known (line 2)? Explain and discuss: "But the way of evildoers, Shall by Him be overthrown."

After reading this poem, what character traits did you think of? What does the Bible have to say about these character traits?

What Does the Bible Say?

Find Scripture proofs for each of the assertions or statements made for each of the five verses.

What does the Bible have to say about loyalty (which is closely related to love)? Identify Biblical characters that were demonstrated loyalty to God. Can you think of anyone else in history that demonstrated this character trait in the Biblical sense? What will you tell your grandchildren about loyalty? How will you encourage your grandchildren in this character trait?

Discuss this poem in light of ...

Matthew 22:37 " ... Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind."

Luke 10:27 "... Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind."

Deuteronomy 6:5 "And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might."

Mark 12:30 "And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength ..."

The Author/Poet

Based on what you have studied about this poem so far, would you guess that the author was a Christian or a humanist? How did you arrive at your decision?

This poem is from the The Psalter Hymnal.

Geography

Locate the country of your choice on a globe, map and atlas.

Challenge Locate one or two cities from this country on a map or in an atlas.

Compare/contrast the weather from this country with your own for one week.

Make a meal from this country for your family.

Activities

1) Make your own book! Without making an image of Christ, draw pictures representing each verse. (Note: that will be five different illustrations). With construction paper and other items readily available at home, make a title page with the name of the song and the author's name which will be your book's cover. You may want to illustrate your cover and include this poem in your book.

2) Make your own play! Re-enact with your siblings or friends the message discussed in this poem. Keep it lively, simple, and short. You may want to end your play with singing a rousing chorus of this poem or reading Scripture verses. Videotape your creation.

3) Radio Drama! With a handheld tape recorder, create your own radio show dramatizing the message of this poem.

4) Be a Reporter! Either with your family camcorder or with a handheld tape recorder, “interview” various individuals this poem could illustrate (e.g., family members, Joshua and Caleb, Alfred the Great, Charlemagne, Moses, Ruth and Esther, soldiers, laborers, doctors, etc.). In order to have the fast paced style of a reporter, watch and/or listen to the news with your parents’ permission. Keep the interviews lively, quick, and to the point.

Remain objective! Being objective means just reporting the facts and not giving your opinion of the situation.

5) What is one of the things you most enjoy? Is it literature? math? science? sports? cooking? Take that area of interest and relate that to this poem. If you enjoy dance, for example, develop a dance routine that physically expresses the sentiments of this poem. If you enjoy shop, create something out of wood that helps to clarify this poem. Do you enjoy creating stories? Write a story based on any time period you desire that expresses the sentiments of this poem. Do you enjoy creating things in the kitchen? Make an ancient meal from this time or develop your own meal that symbolizes the many different points this poem makes.

6) Poster. Create a poster illustrating the the author’s view of the impact of Blessed is He Who Loves God Precepts.

7) Scavenger Hunt. Go to the library to learn what you can about psalms and psalters and share it with your family. If possible, discover the story behind this poem.
